MEMO ENDORSED

Re: U.S. v. Santiago-Rodriguez, 19 cr 729

Dear Judge Wood:

I am counsel for Rosa Santiago-Rodriguez, the defendant in the above referenced matter.

Previously, Ms. Santiago-Rodriguez pled guilty pursuant to a Plea Agreement. Her sentence is scheduled for November 16, 2022.

I received the Presentence Interview Report ("PSR") last month. However, Ms. Santiago-Rodriguez does not speak nor read English. Accordingly, I requested the PSR be translated and transcribed into Spanish. Earlier this week, I received the translated version of the PSR and have mailed it to Ms. Santiago-Rodriguez. However, at this point, I need additional time to review the PSR with her, prepare a response to the PSR (if necessary), as well as prepare a sentencing memorandum on her behalf. Accordingly, I respectfully request that her sentencing be adjourned.

Subject to the court's availability, I respectfully request it be adjourned to a date during the week of either December 19th or 26th or thereafter.

I have conferred with the Government and they consent to this request.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/
Jeffrey G. Pittell
